

Advocacy and Community Relations

NJCSA advocates for students and their families by promoting the charter school model and supporting policies that will strengthen the quality of education in New Jersey for all children. Our experienced team works to improve the policy and operating environment for all charter schools in New Jersey.

What We Do

- ✓ Inform, enlighten and engage the New Jersey Legislature on current issues and hot-button topics directly affecting charter schools, such as autonomy, accountability and funding equity
- ✓ Collaborate with national organizations on federal education policies
- ✓ Actively engage and collaborate with the NJ Department of Education
- ✓ Update our members and stakeholders on legislative and regulatory activities, such as actions on bills affecting charter schools and call-to-action legislative alerts
- ✓ Deliver testimony at public hearings, forums and debates
- ✓ Improve public awareness of charter schools
- ✓ Educate charter school staff, parents and stakeholders on positive messaging techniques through on-site trainings
- ✓ Coordinate legislative tours of charter school facilities
- ✓ Host monthly advocacy conference calls for members
- ✓ Develop policy priorities supporting the expansion of high-quality charter schools

Through financial support from members and stakeholders like you, NJCSA can continue our mission of supporting and advocating for a stronger, healthier and active charter school community dedicated to providing high-quality public education to New Jersey's students.
